First Nostress Netlabel digital release. A strong experimental ambient drone with deepest and obscure atmospheres. Nesting Error is an Italian duo and this is the second release after a self-production CD released in 2009. "Eisen" is a long unique deepest track with five different musical movements that seems gradually change into an obsessive drone and with an hoping ending. Listening the track is warned a feeling of worsening; an obsessive "softly and pure" kind of desperation. Nesting Error performed "Eisen" during a concert in Palermo on September 2010. Now they recorded this musical suite for a digital release.
