BAUMANN.electronics

Lone producer & DJ emerged from the mists of the Montseny massif, tireless walker, woods and riversides lover, Watcher of the Skies day or night...he and his two white dogs.

Ambient freaky, house lover, trance addict, minimal user, techno abuser, and so on.. this time comes to your ears with a release of massive ambient drone. A deep & introspective musical trip produced under the spell of fairies, known as "Naides" in this wet and rainy country.

Thanks to Juan Reyes, Jan van W, Lars Nyquist, Kent Snyder, Abhishek Pandey and to she who knows my name and secret place. - Gualba - Catalunya - December - 2011

der Zugzwang

The German term literally means "compulsion to move":

der Zug = move (in chess; from the verb "ziehen," which means to make a move, but also to pull, of course, der Zug = train);

der Zwang = compulsion, from the verb "zwingen," which means "to force someone to do something.

In chess, describes a situation in which one player has to make a move, but any move he makes will be disadvantageous to him, whereas if he did not have to move, he would not be at a disadvantage.
