Musical project by Francesco Vecchi from Milano, an already known artist in Nostress Netlabel with the moniker Jenseits. His new debut with the pseudonym Etterem is a project "soaked" with musicality and different genres and bravely places to live entirely together in an innovative and unconventional mixture of music that himself defines Electro Dark Irish. Conjunctions and contamination of traditional music / popular (in this case Irish) and in a strong alliance with bravely and electronic psychedelia all mixed up with the key of the "loop" and "obsessive repetition." Nostress Netlabel could not remain indifferent to this kind of experimentalism and avant-garde as in this case and decided to characterize this project and make it even more unique promoting it and distributing it in electronic digital format and also, for fans of the genre, vinyl creating a new catalog and reported exclusively referred to projects of all innovative and special. The artist Etterem performed his LP "Dark Irish.Some Tunes" during the event NN Live 001, first edition of periodic events organized by Nostress Netlabel with the aim of promoting live performances and publications in digital and on various media in order to focus more attention on the activities of the label through the diffusion of the music catalog through the use of "vintage taste" support like vinyl.

Progetto musicale di Francesco Vecchi da Milano, artista già noto in Nostress Netlabel con il moniker Jenseits, che esordisce con lo pseudonimo Etterem, nuovo progetto musicale costituito da generi diversi coraggiosamente posti a convivere insieme in una miscela del tutto inedita che lui stesso definisce Electro Dark Irish. Congiunzioni e contaminazioni di musica tradizionale / popolare (in questo caso irlandese) in stretto e coraggioso connubio con psychedelia ed elettronica il tutto condito da "loops" e "ripetizioni ossessive". Nostress Netlabel non poteva certo rimanere indifferente a questa forma di sperimentalismo e avanguardia e ha deciso quindi di caratterizzare questo progetto e di renderlo ancora più unico promuovendolo e distribuendolo sia in formato digitale elettronico che, per gli appassionati del genere, in vinile, dando vita ad un nuovo catalogo riferito esclusivamente a particolari progetti. L'artista Etterem ha presentato in anteprima il suo lavoro "Dark Irish.Some Tunes" nel corso dell'evento NN Live 001, prima edizione di concerti periodici organizzati da Nostress Netlabel con lo scopo di promuovere esibizioni live e pubblicazioni in digitale e su vari supporti, al fine di focalizzare maggiormente l'attenzione sulle attività dell'etichetta stessa e la diffusione del proprio catalogo anche attraverso la realizzazione di supporti dal sapore vintage come il vinile.
